

The How-to Guide in Navigating High School

December 17, 2021 between 8:00 pm and 9:30 pm (EST)

Synopsis:

Not sure which classes to pick? Confused on where to look for internships? Overwhelmed by high school and life? Speakers Anthony Duan and Julia Liu will be addressing each of these issues in their High School Course Selection talk series. They will go over their own class schedules, extracurricular activities, and internship experiences, and general advice for acclimating to high school. At the end, there will be a Q&A session to address any other questions.

Biography:

Julia Liu graduated from River Hill High School in the class of 2021. She is currently a freshman student at the New York University Stern School of Business. In high school, Julia served as the president of the River Hill FBLA chapter, president of the Tri-M Music Honor Society, and member of the state-winning POMS dance team. In 2020, she partnered with the restaurant Koshary by Misteka and delivered consulting services through FBLA. Currently, she is a member of the Strategic Venture Society of NYU, and is interested in venture capital, tech, and social entrepreneurship.

Anthony Duan is a freshman at Georgetown University, planning to major in economics and computer science. He participates in clubs such as Quiz Bowl, Model United Nations, and the Asian American Student Association. Anthony graduated from Centennial High School in 2021, and his favorite two classes were Comparative Government and Computer Science A, while he was also on the mathematics, Model UN, and It's Academic teams. As a member of the It's Academic team, he mentored elementary and middle school students after school and organized activities during the summer. Since this summer, Anthony has served as an intern for State Senator Katie Fry Hester.
