Synopsis:

Medical school application in US has increasingly been competitive. The key to success is how to make your application stand out. This seminar will give you a snapshot of how we can help talented and ambitious applicants to get into their dream medical schools (or tuition-free medical schools) successfully in a timely fashion by tailoring every aspect of your application to ensure the best quality right from your AMCAS application to your interview.

Brief Bio:

Dr. Sidney Fu, Professor of Medicine at George Washington University (GWU), has mentored and advised students from high school to college and graduate to be admitted to their dreamed medical schools successfully nationwide. He has extensive experience in reviewing medical school applications, and interviewing candidates applying to medical school. His excellent communication skills and clear-cut advices for all stages of your application will help you excel in this tough journey.

Dr. Leo Chalupa, Professor and former VP at GWU, has worked with hundreds of premedical students advising them of the best strategy for getting admitted to the medical school of their choice. His more than 40 years of experience in this field provides the key ingredient for a successful outcome in gaining admission to medical school for students of all backgrounds.

Among the medical schools where his students have been accepted are Harvard, Johns Hopkins, University of California, San Francisco, UCLA, Baylor, Duke, Wake Forest, Georgetown, George Washington and many other top ranked institutions.

Dr. Jane Tan, Assistant professor at GWU, has extensive experiences in interviewing, mentoring and advising students including high school, college, and graduate students, in helping them to be admitted to medical school.
